

Bilingual Survey Interviewer

Call centre? We're more like a research centre with lots of computers and phones. We're not trying to sell anything; we conduct market research surveys. It's actually pretty interesting. And, we're a friendly, locally owned and operated business. We work with your life's schedule. And you never, ever feel like a number. What can we say, people like working here. We're easy-going and we can juggle schedules. Plus, we have...

- Competitive wages
- Employee Recognition Programs
- Flexible hours

We are currently recruiting Bilingual Survey Interviewers. Our Bilingual Survey Interviewers will be able to fluently speak, write and read in both English and French, and will:

- Conduct research surveys in a courteous, professional and objective manner by following the scripts provided.
- Record responses accurately and follow all guidelines that are provided during training and each project briefing.

We are currently hiring 4 bilingual interviewer positions. Please apply by email to join-our-team@mqoresearch.com

This part time, casual position is with our Moncton, NB office. Candidates will be required to complete and pass a bilingual assessment test.

MQO Research is one of Atlantic Canada's leading marketing research companies and is an equal opportunity employer.